Begged Piteously for Mercy. The negro, who isad shot and killed Edgar Rice, a special policeman of the Worth Iron mills, last night, was first dragged to the scene of the shooting, begging piteously for mercy. He had been arrested by a posse late this af-ternoon after a search which had stir-red the countryside.

Had Shot Himself in Mouth. When the posse finally located him he was found hiding in a cherry tree and with the last bullet in his revolver shot himself in the mouth, falling from the tree. He was removed to the hospital and placed under police guard.

Broke Into Hospital. A few minutes after 9 o'clock a crowd numbering almost one thousand persons appeared at the hospital. The leaders were unable to gain admission, but quickly smashed the window frames and crawled through the correlater.

"The train, which was double headed," said Mr. Skillman, "was coming at a terrific speed. Just across the bridge which spans the St. Mary's river the train veered into a new switch placed there because of the track elevation work. I guess the train was going at too great a rate for the switch to stand the strain, for it seemed to me as though the rails of the switch just slid from under the train directly over to the freight standing on directly over to the freight standing on the north track.

"The crash was simply terrific. For the first five minutes after the three engines struck there was comparative silence. Then came the sound of cs caping steam, the crash of the two first passenger cars as th eyslid down the embankment into Swinney park and the screams of the passengers."
